

Dear SDHR Forum Community,

In consideration of all members of our community, we have decided to postpone our upcoming event, Dealing with conflict at work? Strategies to go from destructive to PRODUCTIVE! scheduled for March 17 until one of our regularly scheduled morning meetings later this year.

As new developments regarding the coronavirus (COVID-19) continue to unfold, and after the thoughtful deliberation of the Board, the decision was made that the health and wellbeing of all members of our community must come first. Therefore, we've decided to take a cautious approach and postpone this event to a later date.

Please know that our organization deeply values each and every member of this community, and encourage you to reach out with any questions or concerns you may have.

In regard to those of you that have already registered for this event, your registration will be rolled over to the new date once it has been determined. However, if you would prefer a refund at this time, please contact our administrator, Sina Trada, at info@sdhrforum.com who is standing by to assist.

We appreciate your patience and understanding and will continue to keep you updated regarding further changes to our scheduled programming via email, our website and, social media.

Once again, please reach out if you have any questions, and know that we are looking forward to seeing you all again very soon!
Thank you for your understanding and support.

Best regards,

San Diego HR Forum Board of Directors
